finest line in Central Kentucky.

A few gas-bags "don't see how" the Opera House and Hotel can be built.
Such pests never see how any improvement can be made.

Gone to Hold a Meeting.
Rev. Clark, pastor of the local Methodist church, is conducting a meeting near Glasgow.

Hicks predicts much cold weather this winter, so you had better go to Joseph's and get your wife a handsome, comfortable cloak.

Hey, Harry?
There is none so dead as he that will not live.—Danville Advocate.

Mr. Ike D. Current orders his paper changed from Garner to Searcy, Ark. like recently went west to grow up with the country, and we hope he is making money by the handful.

Entertainment.
There will be an entertainment at New Antioch church Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the church. Everybody invited. Admission 15 cents.

To Correspondents.
We will be very thankful if you will send in your communications a day earlier next week. The RECORD will appear on Thursday in order that the force may hustle around for a little extra diet on Thanksgiving.

Preaching at Cartersville.
Dr. E. H. Pierce, president of Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, will preach at Cartersville, Sunday morning, November 27, at 11 o'clock, so we are requested to announce by Rev. Clark.

The bird law expired last Tuesday and many pot hunters have been out to try their luck. Birds are said to be very scarce in the county, but hunters are very much on the order of fishermen when it comes to talking about the sport.

Circuit Court.
Circuit Clerk Hamilton tells THE RECORD the Legislature changed the time of the November court from the third to the fourth Monday. He says the dockets will be unusually light and the court a slim one, only thirty-four cases to be tried.

Rev. Morrison Coming.
We have been informed that Rev. H.
C. Morrison, the noted Methodist divine, will begin a series of meetings in this city the first Sunday in next month. Our informant says Rev. Morrison will be assisted by Prof. Kersey, a singer of great reputation.

Stock Pens.
A movement is on foot to build a large stock yard in the edge of town for the benefit of the country traders.
This idea has been quite successful in many towns, and the traders there now prefer the yards to having cattle mixed up on the streets. The stock on court days get the streets in miserable condition and they frequently remain that way until a rain cleans them. We hope the yards will be erected, as they have proven in all other towns to be a great convenience to all concerned.

Capt. McFarland Here.
Capt. W. C. McFarland, of the 16th Infantry, was here last week for a few days' visit to relatives and old friends.
He was in the fight at Santiago and while taking part in the charge up the famous San Juan hill was wounded in the head by a piece of shell. The missile knocked him down and it is supposed that in this way the report was sent here that he had been killed. The wound only kept him out of the fight for a few minutes and he was soon back on the firing line. Judging from his warm reception in Lancaster he has a lot of good friends here. He expects to be ordered back to Cuba or Porto Rico in a short time.

Card from Bro. Campbell.
As it will be impossible for me to express my gratitude personally to my friends for their kindness to me on the eve of my departure from among them, I will do so through THE RECORD. I extend to the members of my church and my Pythian brothers my heart felt thanks for their kind remembrances.
Also to my friends of the other churches, and those who belong to no church yet friends. These expressions reveal to me your appreciation of me as pastor, friends and citizen. If on earth we should never all see each other again, let us so live as to meet in heaven. Mrs. Campbell joins with me in gratitude to all. T. H. CAMPBELL.

Fresh Oysters daily at Gaines.

Superfine blankets at Joseph's.

Try the fresh peanut candy at the Kandy Kitchen.

Good Saddle Horse for sale. Dr. J.
D. Wesley. nov 11-1f

I would like to do your plain sewing and dyeing. Mrs. Ophelia Dunn.

Leave orders at the Kandy Kitchen steel engraving for the holidays. Don't use a printed or written card. You will be called "a back number." Storms' Drug Store.

Rev. Morrison at Mt. Olivet.

THE RECORD is requested to announce that Rev. H. C. Morrison will begin a meeting at Mt. Olivet, in this county, Sunday morning, November 28. All invited.

Stanford Court.

There were about 300 cattle on the market Monday and probably two-thirds of them changed hands. A few extra good feeders brought 4 1-2c but it was the ruling price. Some went as low as 3 1-2c, however. Heifers were slow at 3 1-2 to 3 1-4. Butcher stuff was not in much demand but some sold as high as 3a 1-2c. The mule and horse market was dull.—Journal.

Brother Barnes.

The Stanford Journal says a friend there has received a letter from Rev.
George O. Barnes saying that he has opened a meeting in Washington City.
He went to New York to see about the publication of his book, having only enough money to take him thither.
Since then a friend in Omaha has sent Miss Mar'e the money and other things necessary for the trip and she has joined her father at the capital.

Will Dunlap Returns.

Will Dunlap, who has been in the 6th regular cavalry, returned home Monday from Huntsville, Ala. He says he only enlisted to serve through the war, and as soon as he could possibly do so, obtained an honorable discharge.
His papers are highly endorsed and will receive many compliments from superior officers. He has been sick since coming from Cuba but is about all right now. Will says army life is far from being the picnic it is cracked up to be, and he has enough of it.

The Campbell-West Wedding.

The marriage of Rev. T. H. Campbell and Miss Chloe West took place at the Baptist church Tuesday morning at ten o'clock. The arrangements were carried out as stated in our last issue.
The church was crowded almost to suffocation by the friends of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, in fact we do not remember of any couple having been so well remembered by their friends. Among the list was a set of handsome table and tea spoons from the Knights of Pythias lodge, and an elegant clock presented by the members of Mr. Campbell's congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for Washington immediately after the ceremony. They have the well wishes of the entire community.

Important Meeting.

The Fiscal Court has invited a number of prominent tax payers to meet with them this Thursday, afternoon, for the purpose of discussing the best method of disposing of the turnpike bonds. Any citizen who feels enough interest in the matter should be present this afternoon and give his views on the subject. The court has received a bushel basketful of letters and telegrams from all over the country making inquiry into the matter and wanting the bonds. They will certainly bring a good figure, as the county is in as good condition as any in the state. Last year, before the turnpike question was voted on, the county levy was lower than it had been in fifteen years. As matters now stand, she owns excellent buildings, all of which are paid for and in splendid shape, and her expenses are as low as it is possible to make them. As said above, there will be no trouble whatever in selling the bonds, and the rate of interest will be lower than the most enthusiastic had hoped for. If you see this before the meeting is held, go to the Court House and help talk the matter over.

Christmas! Christmas! Christmas!

Storms' Drug Store.

It's a little early, but we can't keep a good thing always. We want to tell you that this year we will give over our entire store for three weeks to the display of CHRISTMAS GOODS exclusively for the benefit of the careful Christmas Shoppers. We have been getting ready since last July. Don't think of buying any thing until you examine what we have. A little later we will tell you more about it. Our goods are now coming in and we haven't time to write any more.

Electric Hall Road.

Sunday's Courier-Journal has the following dispatch from Lexington which is news to the people of Richmond: "A company is being formed in this city to build an electric railway between Lexington and Richmond, Ky., a distance of twenty-two miles. The principal promoters are W. J. Loughridge, Vice-President of the Electric Street Company, and Dr. Bennett, President of the National Exchange Bank. The road will cost $125,000. It will cross the Kentucky river at Clay's Ferry."

Important Ruling.

A ruling with reference to the war revenue act, which will be of the greatest interest to persons having dealings with banks, has been made by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Scott.

Some time ago one of the Cincinnati banks endeavored to evade the placing of a revenue stamp on its checks by permitting the depositors to give receipts instead for the money which they drew out. Other banks, of course objected to this procedure and the matter was submitted to the Attorney General for an opinion.

In accordance with the latter, depositors of banks can draw out money without affixing a stamp to a check an instead thereof gives receipts.

This, however, holds good only where the depositors themselves withdraw the money. Others who present checks for payment must affix a stamp hereto as usual.

T. S. Elkin has purchased of R. H.
Tomlinson the Marra store room. Erect a nice building there now, Colonel, and help the old town along.

I have decided to locate in Lancaster and will move here, with my family, about December 1st, to practice my profession. W. BURNETT, M. D. oct-31-1f

this city, has been appointed keeper of the State Arsenal at Frankfort. The place pays $800.

We are offering for sale buggies, surries, phaetons, road wagons and HARNESS at lower prices than ever offered in Lancaster.

W. J. Romans, Carriage Co.

Free to Danville.

The remaining toll gate between here and Danville was taken off Monday night, Boyle county having bought its end of the road. There were 5 1-2 miles, for which the court paid $1,000 per mile.

Closed Thanksgiving.

The merchants will close Thanksgiving for church service in the morning, and will also keep their doors shut in the afternoon, in order to give the employees a few minutes' breathing spell.
